

KEY Exhibits

The Oklahoma City Museum of Art provides visitors an opportunity to see the largest and most comprehensive, permanent collection of Chihuly glass in the world. Dale Chihuly: An Inaugural Exhibition features 18 groupings of work and installations, including a 55 foot sculpture in the Museum's 3 story atrium, the tallest single Chihuly sculpture in the world. A special traveling exhibit, NAPOLÉON An Intimate Portrait, features an extraordinary collection from world renowned Napoleon authority and author, Pierre-Jean Chalençon. The exhibit showcases rare, personal belongings of Napoléon, as well as some of the most famous depictions of the controversial military leader. The Museum's hours are Tuesday – Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Thursday from 10 a.m. – 9 p.m., and Sundays from Noon to 5 p.m. For more information, please call (405)236-3100, or visit online at www.okcmoa.com.

The Oklahoma City National Memorial and Museum honors those who were forever impacted by the bombing on April 19, 1995. The outdoor memorial sits on a three-acre site that includes remnants of the original Alfred P. Marrah Building, and is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. The museum is located adjacent to the memorial, inside the historic Journal Record Building. Damaged by the blast, the museum provides visitors with an experience beyond what they see at the memorial monument. This month, visitors can view a special exhibit on Abraham Lincoln. The special exhibit, Lincoln: The Constitution and the Civil War, takes visitors on a tense and exciting reconstruction illustrating how Lincoln succeeded in saving our Nation in its darkest days. The Museum is open Monday – Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Ticket sales end daily at 5 p.m. For more information, please call (405)235-3313, or visit www.oklahomacitynationalmemorial.org.

The National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum invites visitors of all ages to venture into the Old West to celebrate the history of the American cowboy. Historical galleries include the American Cowboy, American Rodeo, Western Performers, and Prosperity Junction, a recreated authentic western town. A special exhibit, entitled Pinturas de Fe: The Retablo Tradition in Mexico and New Mexico, presents the popular Hispanic religious art tradition of retablos, which began in Mexico and the American Southwest in the 18th century. The Museum's hours of operation are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., seven days a week. For more information, please call (405)478-2250, or visit www.national-cowboymuseum.com.

Oklahoma City Museum of Art

